National Level E-Seminar on Mathematical Sciences

Organized by

Department of Mathematics

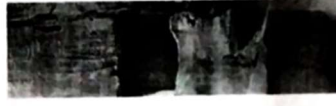

Anuppur District of Madhya Pradesh is situated in the south-eastern part of the state. On 15th August, 2003, Anuppur district was formed from the district of Shahdol. Total area of the newly formed Anuppur district is 3746.71 sq. Km. It is 1.2 percent of the state.

Wrapped in the exquisiteness of Vindhya and Satpura range, the glorious Amarkantak is one of the most famous pilgrim hubs in the Anuppur District of Madhya Pradesh. This heavenly destination is well-known as the origin of two great and renowned rivers, the Narmada and the Sone that unleash several stories about the history of Amarkantak. Located at a height of 1065 meters in the central Indian region, this legendary town is of great importance and is known as Theertharaja meaning the King of pilgrim sites.

This beautiful place is dipped in absolute serenity with the verdant hills, surrounding the entire town, decent climate, charming natural beauty, and bewitching waterfalls. One can experience immaculate nature in its full bloom in Amarkantak if visited in the winter season. The place is all set to entertain its visitors with holy ponds, sparkling streams, and dense forests that are a part of this amazing destination. Some of the prime attractions in Amarkantak are Narmadakund and Ancient Temples of Kalachuri Period. There are as many as 16 small temples within the temple complex of Narmadakund, which is situated in the heart of the town.

About The College

The College was founded by a regional society of Anuppur on 25th July 1972 and later in 1986, it was taken over by the state Government of Madhya Pradesh. The college is permanently affiliated to the Awadhesh Pratap Singh University, Rewa (M.P.). The college provides various academic amenities so as to attain Bachelors' and Masters' Degrees in the fields of Science, Arts and Commerce. The college is a reputed educational institution in Anuppur district which has been known for producing outstanding students who take on different careers as per their academic merit successfully in the society. The college not only ensures the academic development of students but also provide them with opportunities to prove themselves by means of extracurricular and co-curricular activities. The young and highly qualified team of faculty members spare no efforts to keep the students well informed and in updating their knowledge. The students are also reciprocating by their high achievements in academic performance. Every year several students are also selected in reputed Universities for higher studies.
